About MDAA

MDAA aims to promote, protect and secure the rights and interests of people with disability and their families and carers, with particular focus on culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD)/ non-English speaking (NES) background.

Our vision is a society where everyone, regardless of background or disability feels welcomed, included and supported.

MDAA has offices in the Sydney suburbs of Granville, Hurstville and Waterloo; and in the NSW regions of Newcastle, Wollongong, Bega and Griffith.

What does MDAA Inc. do?

Individual Advocacy

We support people with disability with a particular focus on CALD/NES background on different issues.

Systemic Advocacy

MDAA advocates for social justice. We work to improve legislation, policies and services for people with disability and their families and carers, with particular focus on CALD/NES background.

We create partnerships that strengthen the voice for justice and inclusion and raise awareness of the rights and needs of people with disability.

Capacity Development

MDAA is funded to provide a range of National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) related services:

- Appeals & Reviews for decisions made by the NDIS
- Skill-building projects e.g. Community Voices
- We facilitate, support and maintain the NSW Network of Women with Disability.

Industry Development

MDAA develops resources, provides information and advice. We also conduct research to create responsive, equitable and skilled services.

Support MDAA's work

You can support MDAA's work by:

- ▶ becoming a member
- ▶ making a financial donation (all donations over $2 are tax deductible)
- ▶ donating your skills to MDAA as a volunteer
- ▶ telling people about MDAA's services
- ▶ speaking up against racism and discrimination
- ▶ making your community inclusive

MDAA Inc. gratefully acknowledges funding provided by the Australian government through Commonwealth funding grants from the Department of Social Services, and the NSW government from the Department of Communities & Justice.
