

Multicultural Disability Advocacy Association of NSW Inc

Special General Meeting to Consider Special Resolutions to the MDAA Constitution

Date: 07 December 2022

Venue: St Mark's Anglican Church, 17 Mary St Granville NSW 2142

As recommended by current regulatory guidelines, the Multicultural Disability Advocacy Association of NSW has undertaken a yearly review of its Constitution.

Pursuant to section 35 of the Multicultural Disability Advocacy Association Constitution and Rules of Association (2018). A Special General Meeting has been called to consider a Special Resolution to amend the constitution.

The information below sets out the current Constitutional provisions, and the proposed changes MDAA is proposing in order to achieve these objectives.

Proposed Amendments:

Amendment 1

The current clause states as follows:

19.7 TERM

- (d) After being a Committee Member for six (6) consecutive years, a Committee member may be eligible for re-election or re-appointment not earlier than four (4) years after the completion of the six (6) consecutive years.*

Proposed Amendment:

- (d) After being a Committee Member for six (6) consecutive years a period of rest shall be observed for one (1) year. After which, the member can be nominated again for the Governance Committee.

Amendment 2

The current clause states as follows:

In relation to 3 Objects of the Association:

- 3.1 (b) supporting NDIS participants with greater choice and control, support coordination and appeals relating to their NDIS plans*
- (c) supporting business enterprises to ensure complete service delivery for people with disability*

Proposed Amendment:

(b) supporting NDIS participants with greater choice and control and appeals relating the NDIS plans

(c) Removal of clause from Constitution

Rider for the Resolutions:

“That the Constitutional Amendments be approved and to the extent necessary ratified”.

