

Why Provide inclusive, accessible, and culturally responsive services?

- To fulfill human rights obligations under the laws
- To meet requirements under the National Standards for Disability Services and NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission
- To provide an outstanding quality of services for all people with disability
- To give an opportunity by meeting gap in the market
- To widen market share by capturing people with disability from diverse backgrounds
- To respond to changing social and political landscapes
- To continually improve services such as offering different ways to communicate with people with disability
- To enrich the service with cultural knowledge and experiences and enable it to respond to diverse needs of people with disability

Proudly funded by

Co-designed with service providers and MDAA consumers in 2022 under the Working Together Project